

Wondering about the Joe! Study? Read on!

Who is Joe!?

We are Joe! - the parishioners of St. Joseph Parish.

What is Growing an Engaged Church?

Growing an Engaged Church is a book we identified to assist us as we explore who we are as a community and how we need to plan for our future.

What is the Joe! Study?

The Joe! Study is a tool to measure engagement - how we feel about our parish.

How are the results from the Joe! Study going to be used?

The responses are the foundation of a conversation between parishioners regarding how we feel about our parish and our levels of engagement.
(Add link to results)

Can I see the results of the Joe! Study?

A summary of our responses to the initial study is posted on the parish website.

What are the Focus Groups?

The Focus Groups are small group discussions centered on specific questions derived from the Joe! Study.

Can a parishioner still participate in a Focus Group?

Yes, a new round of Focus Groups have been scheduled for the summer. Please check the website for dates, times, and locations.

What's the next step?

The responses from this round of Focus Groups will be shared with the parish in August.

Joe! Quote from a Focus Group discussion:

“My life is changing. I am becoming less about doing and more about being.”